

Pub Quiz

Hello quiz master! If you're stuck with how to introduce the quiz, here is a template for you - feel free to adjust it as you wish.

"Welcome to the Prospect Hospice pub quiz at (insert pub name here). My name is (insert name) and I will be your quiz master for this evening.

We will have ten rounds, with a mixture of easy and more challenging questions.

We will take a break half way through, in which you can restock on refreshments and complete the special picture round - this evening it's based on the flags of the 2014 World Cup competitors.

Each team has a joker card - you can use this in the round you think you will score the most points to double your score. You will need to play your card before the round is marked - so choose wisely!

As quiz master, I have the final call on any debate or argument regarding the correct answer.

Make sure you put your team name on the answer sheets - and put your phones and tablets away!"
